

Results for Development Institute

January 6 2015

Results for Development Institute (R4D) is a non-profit organisation whose mission is to unlock solutions to tough development challenges that prevent people in low- and middle-income countries from realising their full potential. Using multiple approaches in multiple sectors including, global Education, global Health, governance and market dynamics, R4D supports the discovery and implementation of new ideas for reducing poverty and improving lives around the world.
