

Enko Education

July 13 2016

Enko Education was co-founded in 2013 and is developing a network of private secondary schools in partnership with existing local schools with an established reputation for excellence. By providing international courses, Enko Education enables schools to give students a structured, modern learning experience that is recognised worldwide.

© 2016 - Private Sector & Development